

We are looking for a
Senior Prosecutor
 for our Human Capital & Legal Department

At the Health Sciences Authority (HSA), we recognise the enormous challenge biomedical science presents due to blurring of boundaries between healthcare products and increasing convergence in applications of medical technology. It is right here at HSA, that we are uniquely equipped to meet this challenge.

A statutory board formed in 2001, we play a vital role in ensuring: a safe and adequate blood supply; safe, quality and efficacious health products; and prompt and reliable analytical and forensic services to support the administration of justice. We are responsible for quality, safety and efficacy of medicines, medical devices, blood and its products and other health-related products available in Singapore.

Responsibilities

- Manage the prosecution unit in HSA
- Supervise and conduct the prosecution of criminal cases in the Subordinate Courts against subject(s) contravening laws in force regulating health products.
- Rendering legal advice and opinions on regulatory and operational issues
- Assisting the General Counsel in training and implementation relating to governance and compliance programs

Requirements

- Minimum Bachelor's degree in Law
- Singapore-qualified lawyer with at least 5 years General Litigation Post Qualified Experience
- Experience with criminal litigation is required
- Qualified to practise in Singapore
- Good interpersonal and communication skills
- If there is any good candidates with relevant experience, we are open to discuss the salary
- Good team-player who is able work independently

Interested candidates please submit your applications together with your resume to hsa_hr@hsa.gov.sg

The Casino Regulatory Authority is a statutory board, set up on 2 April 2008, under the Ministry of Home Affairs, to regulate the casinos to ensure that the casinos are free from criminal influence, gaming in the casinos is conducted honestly, and to mitigate the potential harm caused to minors, vulnerable persons and society at large.

We invite qualified candidates to apply for the following position:

LEGAL COUNSEL

You will be part of CRA's Legal Division, assisting to advise on, develop and implement regulatory policies and actions. You will provide legal advice and support to CRA in all aspects of the performance of its statutory functions and duties, including:

- Working with senior management to develop and implement regulatory policies and actions;
- Drafting of regulatory instruments such as subsidiary legislation, approvals, notices, directions and licences;
- Drafting and vetting of contractual documents such as tenders, employment contracts, insurance policies and other commercial agreements;
- Providing secretariat support to the CRA Board sub-committees, in particular the Disciplinary Committee;
- Advising the CRA Board on appeals to the Authority on patron disputes;
- Advising on the enforcement of regulatory breaches and regulatory offences;

- Liaising with the Attorney-General's Chambers on amendments to subsidiary legislation or cases for prosecution;
- Setting up a repository of legal advice rendered to the CRA and the CRA's legal library; and
- Providing legal training to the CRA officers.

Job Requirements

The candidate should essentially possess the following:

- A good Honours degree, with at least 3 to 5 years relevant experience as in-house legal counsel or in private practice;
- An interest in developing a robust regulatory enforcement framework for a fast paced industry;
- A litigation background would be preferred;
- Versatile, be able to think and navigate quickly in different policy and operational spheres and possesses a strong analytical mind to focus on core issues; and
- Self-motivated team player with strong communication and interpersonal skills. The ability to write and reason clearly and compellingly is absolutely essential.

Please refer to www.cra.gov.sg for more information. To apply, send your detailed resume to cra_hr@cra.gov.sg.

Closing date: 27th December 2012

We regret that only short-listed candidates will be notified.