

Opportunities for Life

Compliance Counsel, 5 – 8 yrs pqe

Our Client, a global Medical Devices distributor seeks a high-energy corporate lawyer to support its Head of Legal and Compliance in planning effective compliance programs and managing compliance matters in Singapore, China, India, Europe, Americas etc. You will provide legal advice and review contracts for international stakeholders including sales, procurement, R&D etc; also proactively engaging internal stakeholders on continually-changing regulatory environment and enterprise risk; advising on corporate matters, including entity set-up and license procurement. You must be polished in communication skills and capable of running major cross border transactions independently.

Legal Advisor, 8 - 10 yrs pqe

A global Oil & Gas player seeks an experienced Counsel to assist its Managing Director to ensure that the company's trading, business development and senior management functions are provided with efficient, effective and responsive legal advice; that the company is able to achieve its commercial objectives without breaching any statutory law or regulations and to ensure that legal risk is properly assessed and fully understood; inform and advise upon the rapidly changing legal environment within which the company operates. In-depth knowledge of the energy trading sector and associated contracts is a must.

For a confidential discussion, please contact our Legal & Compliance Practice – Melinda Ng at 6398 3268 / melinda@rgf-executive.com.sg, EA Personnel Registration No. R1107430 or Lynn Teo at 6439 1458 / lynn@rgf-executive.com.sg, EA Personnel Registration No. R1110918

Legal & Compliance Counsel, 8 – 10 yrs pqe

You will support and assist the Managing Counsel in providing legal and compliance support on matters, transactions, initiatives and projects relating to its business across the Asia Pacific & China region. You will also support key business initiatives including business development, distribution/vendor arrangements, new marketing initiatives, market access proposals/programs, etc; as well as provide balanced and sound legal risk assessments and counsel on assigned projects to enable the business/functional teams to make prudent informed business decisions. Ability to identify key issues, consistently apply a high standard of integrity, professionalism, legal knowledge, and expertise and business ethics is highly desired.

Corporate Counsel, 2 – 4 yrs pqe

Reporting to the Regional Counsel, the legal team will focus on the ASEAN region. You will be responsible for providing legal, contract management, compliance and risk management advice and support, with an emphasis on partnering the business and regional management on strategic, business and operational matters, where your sound and pro-active advice would be key in supporting major decisions and expansion plans. You will also assist its subsidiaries in the region to meet business objectives through a broad understanding of laws applicable to the company's businesses in various countries; oversees dispute resolution and any litigation in the region.

RGF is the global brand of Recruit Holdings, the world's fourth largest HR and recruitment services company and the largest in Japan, generating over US$14 billion annual net sales. For more than 50 years, RGF provides comprehensive HR and talent acquisition services which include retained and contingency executive recruitment and market mapping, senior to staff level specialist and contract recruitment as well as payroll services. RGF operates in more than 46 locations across 26 cities in 11 countries and markets in Asia with in-country specialist consultants.

Winner, Best Recruitment Firm in Accounting, Banking, Finance; The Executive Search Company of the Year; The HR Recruitment Company of the Year; Best Recruitment Firm, Non-Management Roles and Best Recruitment Firm, RPO. HRM Asia, P1 ASIA, Human Resources magazine